Open lecture by Doctor of Physics and Mathematics Sergey Prischepa at BSUIR

On 12 April Siarhei Prischepa, Doctor of Physics and Mathematics, Professor, Professor of the Department of Information Protection of Belarusian State University of Informatics and Radioelectronics, finished the cycle of open lectures. These lectures have been held for the last four months by the invited speakers and scientists of the university.

The professor spoke to the students on the topic "Physical Basis of Superconductor Spintronics. As Sergei Prischepa noted, he had the opportunity to speak in different auditoriums, but speaking at his home university is always honorable and responsible, because many students in the future become colleagues of their own professors.
